The draft memo. below may issue.

As regards H.M.'s. query whether the communal rule is not applicable to emergency appointments, it is submitted that the communal rule is not mandatory in the case of emergency appointments. Please see rule 9, and 19 of the general rules of the Provincial Subordinate Services and rule 5 of the Special rules for the Madras Agricultural Subordinate Service. It is however open to Government to instruct the appoint-ing authority exec. order to observe the communal rule applicable to the service for, regular appointments in the case of emergency appointments also.

Where are these rules please? I remember to have seen a G.O. that communal proportion should be adhered to as far as possible in emergency appointments also. May be I am wrong.

With reference to the minutes of the Hon. Minister at 'A' above it has been ascertained from Public (Services) Department that no orders have been issued to observe Communial representations even in making emergency appointment. For orders.

With reference to the minute of the Hon. Minister for Agriculture at 'k' on page 1 above the Memo to the Director of Agriculture on page 1 c.f. and his reply thereto and the enclosure on page 3 to 7 c.f. may be perused.

2. From the list of candidates appointed as upper subordinates under the emergency provisions it is seen that altogether 59 candidates have been appointed, 24 in the Telugu area and 35 in Non-Telugu area. The Director of Agriculture has reported that Telugu candidates were posted to Telugu area, and Non-Telugu Candidates to Non-Telugu area.

3. A statement showing the communities and languages of the candidates appointed in the two areas is furnished below as required by the Hon Minister for Agriculture on page 1 above.

This question of rank is all a superstition. It is not always a person with rank that fits in for a work. The Director of Agriculture himself has reported about a person as unfit for anything though he has a striving of degrees. I can understand persons possessing the same degrees being personally interviewed and personality and resourcefulness tested. This consideration of rank alone is unfair. I think the communal fairness will have to be observed in emergency appointments also. In this case of 59 appointments 29 appointments have been given to one community alone. H.Pr. may see.

I would like to discuss with A.M. Agriculture.

Sd. O.P.R.

Discussed with the Premier. It is necessary that there should be some fairness even in Emergency appointments and instructions should be issued generally. The best thing will be to ask the Public Service Commission to make a list even for emergency first appointment both for temporary and permanent posts. This may be sent to Public Department for necessary action and the Director of Agriculture may be told that Communal fairness should be borne in mind in making emergency appointment till a final decision is taken. C.S. may see this before any further action is taken.
